VI EVALUATION OF BIDS AND SELECTION CRITERIA

21. Evaluation of Bids:

- 21.1 Evaluation of bids is conducted in a closed meeting.
 - 21.2 Minutes are taken of bid evaluation meetings.
 - 21.3 Evaluation of bids is conducted as follows:
 - 21.3.1 compliance of the Supplier’s selection (qualification) documents with the requirements of the Regulation. Non-conforming bids may be excluded from further evaluation if the Contracting Entity establishes that non-conformity has material impact on the possibilities of bid valuation and decision-making;
 - 21.3.2 compliance of the Technical Bid of the Supplier with the description of the subject of procurement specified herein;
 - 21.3.3 evaluation of the Financial Bid of the Supplier and check of arithmetical errors. The procurement commission may correct arithmetical errors in the Financial Bid of the Supplier informing the Supplier of such correction.
 - 21.4 Arithmetical errors in bids are corrected as follows:
 - 21.4.1 if numbers in words differ from numbers in digits, numbers in words will be taken into account;
 - 21.4.2 if the unit price differs from the total price obtained as a result of multiplication of a unit price and the number, the unit price will be taken into account and the total price will be adjusted;
 - 21.4.3 if an arithmetical error is detected in the bid in respect of tax calculation, the Contracting Entity corrects such figure in line with the tax calculation procedure laid down in laws.
 - 21.5 Criterion for selection of bid: offer with the lowest offered contract price in EUR without VAT.
 - 21.6 If the Supplier states in its bid that the bid is not final and may be reviewed, the Contracting Entity and the Supplier may conduct negotiations. During negotiations with the Suppliers that have submitted their initial bid by the deadlines specified herein, the Contracting Entity will coordinate the opportunities of the Supplier and its own needs. No negotiations will be conducted if the Supplier that has submitted its bid in conformity with the requirements of the regulation has stated in its bid that the bid is final and may not be reviewed or if the bid leads to a conclusion that it is final and will not be reviewed.
22. The Contracting Entity may invite other suppliers to submit their initial bids and to participate in negotiations at any time before the final decision as to the award of contract is made.

23. The Contracting Entity informs all suppliers that have submitted their initial bids of the selected bid as soon as possible, though no later than within 5 (five) business days of the decision date, by sending such information via mail, fax or electronic mail.

VII RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF PROCUREMENT COMMISSION

24. Rights and Obligations of Procurement Commission:

- 26.1. Bids are evaluated by the procurement commission of the Contracting Entity. The procurement commission may invite expert(s).
- 26.2. The procurement commission may correct arithmetical errors in the Financial Bid of the Supplier. The procurement commission informs the Supplier of the correction of errors and the corrected bid amount.
- 26.3. The Contracting Entity may terminate the procurement procedure if objective justification is in place.
- 26.4. If the procurement commission establishes that the bid in question is abnormally low, prior to rejection of such bid, the procurement commission requests in writing that the Supplier provides a detailed explanation of essential provisions of the bid.
- 26.5. If the procurement commission establishes that the Supplier has not proven that such provisions of the bid are available to the Supplier that allow offering of such low price, the commission declares that the bid is abnormally low and does not consider it any further.
- 26.6. If the Contracting Entity in the course of evaluation establishes that the information provided in the submitted documents is unclear or incomplete, the Contracting Entity claims that the Supplier or a competent authority explains or supplements information included in such documents.
- 26.7. In the course of negotiations the Contracting Entity may request that the bids are explained, supplemented and improved.
- 26.8. The Contracting Entity will not enter into the service contract with the Supplier, if they are in conflict of interests, within the meaning of Section 12 of Cabinet Regulation No 104 of 28.02.2017, except for cases specified in Section 13 of Cabinet Regulation No 104 of 28.02.2017.
- 26.9. All other rights and obligations of the procurement commission not dealt with herein are regulated by Cabinet Regulation No 104 of 28.02.2017 Regulations Regarding Procurement Procedure and Procedures for Application Thereof to Projects Financed by a Contracting Authority and other applicable laws and regulations.

VIII RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF SUPPLIERS

25. Rights and Obligations of Suppliers:

- 27.1. The Supplier is obligated to give answers to the additional information requests of the procurement commission within the timeframe specified by the commission. If the Supplier fails to answer the questions posed by the commission when due, the Commission may exclude the Supplier from further participation in the procurement.
